

2016 Blackwell-Tapia Conference and Award Ceremony

October 28-29, 2016

Location: University of Tennessee, Knoxville, Conference Center

Honoring the inspired leadership of David Blackwell and Richard Tapia, this 9th annual conference showcases mathematical excellence by minority researchers and efforts to address underrepresentation.

David H. Blackwell
1919-2010

Richard Tapia

Scientific talks ♦ Poster presentations ♦ Panel discussions ♦ Networking ♦ Awarding of the Blackwell-Tapia Prize to 2016 Recipient, Dr. Mariel Vazquez

Participants from all career stages welcome to attend! If needed, a limited amount of financial support for travel, lodging and registration will be available by application.

Co-organized by NIMBioS and SAMSI with generous support from the Alfred P. Sloan Foundation

For more information, visit: http://www.nimbios.org/education/blackwell_tapia

